Frankfurt

Referred to as “Mainhatten” after the river that divides it, Frankfurt is home to 14 of Germany’s 15 tallest buildings, yet also a beautiful medieval timber-framed old town.

Where To Stay: Steigenberger
Adina Frankfurt Neue Oper - view of Main & skyline

Where To Eat: Kleinmarkthalle - indoor market hall
SchillerstraBe Market - outdoor market hall (think lunch!)
Zum Standesamtchen - schnitzel & beer
Zum Schwarzen Stern - schnitzel & wine
Haus Wertheim - survived WWII

Top Things To Do:

- Römerberg - #1 THING TO DO!
- Walk through Weseler Werft
- Lookup at Paul’s Church
- Lookup at the Financial district
- Alte Oper - Old Opera House
- Main Tower - Sky Tower Viewing Deck
- Eiserner Steg - Famous steel bridge
- Euro Sculpture - almost auctioned off!
- Frankfurt Cathedral
- Europaturm - Space Needle
- Palmengarten - Botanical garden
- Portikus - half way across Alte Brucke (the Old Bridge)
- Eschenheimer Turm - rare medieval tower (cafe inside)
- Stadel Art Museum - Rembrandt, Monet, Picasso...
- MyZeil Mall - Germany’s longest escalator at 46m & rooftop bar
- Day Trips: Cologne (1.5 hrs north), Heidelberg (1 hr south)

Must Try & See

Apfelwein (apple wine)

Gerippte, a typical glass for apple wine, is the nickname for Westhafen Tower (Frankfurt’s circular green skyscraper)

Remember to:

1. Check the hours! Some markets are only open M-S (ex. Kleinmarkthalle)
2. Bring a lock for Eiserner Steg bridge
3. Make reservations for 22nd Lounge and Bar - cocktails & music with a view
4. Bring cash (Euros)!

Copyright © 2024 aBroadpurpose.com | Do Not Copy